

The French Embassy in Jordan
Scholarship Program 2023-2024

TERMS AND CONDITIONS

- All disciplines are concerned with a preference for the following fields:
 - Sciences: environmental sciences and climate change, agriculture, digital sciences, biology, chemistry, physics, energy, health, earth sciences, etc.
 - Engineering
 - IT (priority to coding and data sciences)
 - Business and administration
 - Tourism and hospitality
 - Law
 - Languages
 - Social and human sciences
- Eligible Candidates
 - Jordanian citizens
 - No more than 30 for Master and 36 years old for PhD
 - Holder of a bachelor degree with minimum academic level "good"
 - Language proficiency :
 - ✓ Candidates who apply for a French program : minimum DELF B2
 - ✓ Candidates who apply for an English program : IELTS, TOEFL or TOEIC (depending on Master and PhD requirements)
- The scholarship includes :
 - A monthly allowance for the duration of the degree from September 1st 2023 (for information the allowance in 2022 was 1500 euros/month for Phd ; and 700 euros/month for Master) ;
 - Social security coverage for the duration of the scholarship ;
 - One round-trip ticket, between France and Jordan, economy class, with transfer to the city of studies ;
 - Priority access for an accommodation in university student residence ;
 - National tuition fees in universities recognized by the French Ministry of Higher education. Any additional tuition fees will be covered by the student.

HOW TO APPLY?

Step 1

- Send your application, only by email, to the following address: bourses-scac.amman-amba@diplomatie.gouv.fr
- The email subject must be "French Embassy scholarship 2023 application"

THE APPLICATION MUST CONTAIN:

- A copy of the passport
- A curriculum vitae (CV)
- A copy of all degrees, from the Tawjihi or equivalent certificate, with transcripts
- Certificates of language level
- A motivation letter. This motivation letter should contain a description of :
 - o your motivation and interests regarding the academic programs you wish to follow in France (Master or PhD) ;
 - o the reasons why you choose France for your studies ;
 - o what is your professional project after your studies in France.
- For Master level : the candidate must apply to the Masters he/she wants to do in France through the Etudes en France website (<https://pastel.diplomatie.gouv.fr/etudesenfrance/>) and mention the Etudes en France file number in the email sent to bourses-scac.amman-amba@diplomatie.gouv.fr . In the case of a Master that is not in the Etudes en France website, the candidate must send a list of 3 masters identified or an admission letter. For help on the Etudes en France process, please contact: amman@campusfrance.org
- For PhD level : an admission letter from a supervisor and/or contact proofs with the PhD School chosen by the candidate.

The documents of the application file must be in French or English (any document in Arabic must be translated)

Step 2

Pre-selection of the application files will be done by the Scholarship Commission of the Cultural Section of the French Embassy in Jordan on the base of:

- Academic excellence and motivation of the candidate ;
- Project relevance and consistency.

Step 3

The pre-selected candidates will be interviewed by the jury of the Scholarship Commission, and the following aspects will be assessed by the jury during the interview :

- Presentation and relevance of the study project ;
- Knowledge of the subject ;
- Professional project of the candidate ;
- Language proficiency in French or English based on the chosen degree.

APPLICATION DEADLINE : 15th of January 2023

INTERVIEW : 24th of January to 7th of February 2023

RESULTS : 22nd of FEBRUARY 2023

ATTENTION: The final award of the grant is subject to an admission to a Master or PhD program in France for the academic year 2023-2024
INFORMATION BY EMAIL ONLY bourses-scac.amman-amba@diplomatie.gouv.fr