

Crude aqueous extracts of 25 medicinal plants was tested and only five (Peganum harmala, Urtica urens, Arum palestinum, Marjoram vulgare and Cleome droserifo//a) showed positive anti-complementary activity as compared to other 19 plants. This is the first report on the complement modulatory activity of these plants.