

Financial Report Note

Al-Ahliyya Amman University is committed to financial responsibility and transparency. In alignment with national regulations and best practices, the university prepares an annual financial summary highlighting revenue source, investment returns, and institutional reinvestments. Key financial insights are shared through strategic and sustainability reports available on our website, supporting our long-term vision for educational excellence and institutional sustainability.